

JANUARY

literacy bingo for little bookworms read a book recommended by your librarian read a book that takes place in Winter read in a snuggly place (under a blanket? in a fort? with a pet?)

10 minutes of DEAR time have a play date with friends at the library

10 minutes of DEAR time

read a new (to you) book by a favorite author attend a program at the library read a book recommended by Librarian in the House check out a book from the library trade books with a friend for week

check out a book from the library

bookworm BINGO

10 minutes of DEAR time

read a book about your favorite animal check out a music CD or video from the library

10 minutes of DEAR time

read a book recommended by a friend read a book recommended by a loved one

Sing winter songs
For ideas, try: teachingmama.org/winter-songs-for-preschoolers/have storytime in a new location (in the bathtub? under the table? in a restaurant?)

read a book about Martin Luther King Jr. (ask your librarian for an age appropriate rec.)

Sing "I'm a Little Snowflake" by Laurie Berkner Band

check out a book from the library

10 minutes of DEAR time

YOU MAKE THE RULES! FIVE IN A ROW? ONE ITEM PER WEEK? FINISH THE BOARD BY MONTH'S END? YOUR CALL. JUST KEEP READING AND HAVE FUN!

P.S. DEAR time means Drop Everything and Read!