

MARCH

literacy bingo for little bookworms

A 5x5 grid of 25 light blue hexagonal tiles, each containing a literacy challenge. In the center of the grid is a black circle with a white dashed border containing the text "bookworm BINGO".

read a book that takes place in Spring (which begins 3/20!)

play "library" with stuffed animals: lead storytime, pick a book & check it out read a biography of a famous woman attend a program at the library make a wishlist together before going to the library investigate your library's online databases for kids read a book recommended by your librarian

10 minutes of DEAR time read a "vintage" book from my Throwback Thursday feature

Read a book by Dr. Seuss

10 minutes of DEAR time

read street signs and name their colors check out a book from the library read a nonfiction book about Spring. The Dewey # is 5082 make a Spring bucket list of activities you don't want to miss

10 minutes of DEAR time

read a book recommended by a friend 10 minutes of shared reading time check out a "new" book from your library check out a book whose author's last name starts with the same letter as the first letter of your name: eg Sara checks out a Seuss book

check out a book from the library

attend a program at the library

Read a book by Dr. Seuss

10 minutes of DEAR time

YOU MAKE THE RULES! FIVE IN A ROW? ONE ITEM PER WEEK? FINISH THE BOARD BY MONTH'S END? YOUR CALL. JUST KEEP READING AND HAVE FUN!

P.S. DEAR time means Drop Everything and Read P.P.S. Throwback Thursday books can be found at librarianinthehouse.com/vintage-childrens-books

(c) Librarian in the House.com. For personal use only, not to be altered or sold.