

APRIL

literacy bingo for little bookworms

bookworm BINGO

Read a joke book or a funny book on April Fool's Day

Celebrate National Poetry Month! Read a poem together outside

Ask your librarian to recommend a book for Earth Day

Attend a program at the library

Read a poem by Jack Prelutsky or Shel Silverstein

Read a nonfiction book about jobs for Take Your Child to Work Day

Read a book recommended by your librarian

10 minutes of DEAR time

Read a book about libraries or that takes place in a library

Celebrate National Library Week by visiting your library the week of April 10-16

10 minutes of DEAR time

Celebrate National Library Workers' Day on 4/12 by making a thank you card for your librarian

Check out a poetry book from the library. You'll find TONS around the 811 Dewey section

Read a book about money on Tax Day

Make a list of reasons why you love your library. Share it with your librarian!

10 minutes of DEAR time

Read a book recommended at Librarian in the House.com

10 minutes of shared reading time

Make a wishlist together before going to the library

Join the national celebration of DEAR on April 12 (Beverly Cleary's birthday) by reading somewhere special that day

Check out a book from the library

Attend a program at the library

Read a book about endangered species for Earth Day (Panda Bear, Panda Bear, What Do You See? is a fun one!)

10 minutes of DEAR time

YOU MAKE THE RULES! FIVE IN A ROW? ONE ITEM PER WEEK? FINISH THE BOARD BY MONTH'S END? YOUR CALL. JUST KEEP READING AND HAVE FUN!

P.S. DEAR time means Drop Everything and Read

(c) Librarian in the House.com. For personal use only, not to be altered or sold.